

RYAN BERTUCCI, AIA

LEED GREEN ASSOCIATE

MANNING, APC

Ryan Bertucci leads architectural projects to success with a steady presence and over a decade in the design and construction industry. He fully engages with clients, communicating clearly and walking them through each phase of the process. He is an attentive listener and adopts client's goals and concerns as his own. As part of this relationship building, he takes ownership of deadlines, making sure the design is thoughtful and well executed. Ryan keeps track of details while also focusing on the bigger picture. He immerses himself in the technology available to the AEC community to better meet the client's needs through more accurate documents, purposeful design, and improved cost efficiencies.
